WILL HONOR ROLL OF DEAD AT WAILUKU

Life of Half a Century In Islands Is Ended By Sudden Illness.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) WAILUKU, May 27.—Next Tuesday Decoration Day, will be duly observed in Wailuku. The Wailuku Fire Department, the native Knights of Pythias and the several Burial Associations of Wailuku, Walehu and Waihee will turn out to do honor to the dead. The special orators of the day will be Captain Chas. Wilcox in English and Deputy High Sheriff Jos. Welch in Hawaiian. Both of the speakers are members of the local Knights of Pythias. Special music is being prepared and arranged by Mr. Moses Kauhiamahu, conductor of the Kaunamahu church choir. A large turn out is expected. After the day's

THE GREAT JANSEN AND COMPANY HERE

The Great Jansen and his company are here. The theatrical company and one hundred pieces of baggage came on the Chiyo Maru this morning. The first performance will be given at the Orpheum Theater tomorrow night. The advance sale indicates a capacity house, but there are still some very good seats left for the opening night. Jansen's favorite surprise, "The American Beauty," is the grandest and most expensive illusion ever presented by any Magician. In this wonderful production Jansen hoodwinks science and annihilates space. No one should miss this performance as it is one of the most novel entertainments ever presented here. The program tomorrow night also includes "The Place of Mystery," "Down on the Farm," "Asa the Mystery of the Air," "The Invisible Flight," and a number of other surprises. Among the other artists who are with the Great Jansen Company are De Hollis and Valora, novelty jugglers; Miss Daisy Thorne, prima donna soprano; Musical Story, novelty musical artist. The perform-

More Steamers for Coast Service.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company is planning to add two large steamers for the service between San Pedro, San Pedro, San Francisco and Seattle. The new steamships will be modeled after the type of the President and Governor. Each will have accommodations for 700 first and second-class passengers. Express and fast freight will be carried by the new vessels. They will have a twenty-knot speed.

Noeau for Kauai Tonight.

The departures this evening will include the inter-island steamer Noeau for Kauai ports. The vessel is taking on shipments of fertilizer and lumber and will sail at five o'clock this evening.
